

Title:

- Daphne Economou, philologist, General Secretary of ELIZA's Governing Board

CV:

- Daphne Economou was born and grew up in India. She continued her education in England and holds a degree in English Literature. She is a founding member and General Secretary of the ELIZA Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and a founding member and Chairman of Cerebral Palsy Greece/Open Door. For her work with the disabled she was awarded the Gold Cross of Bienfaisance by the President of the Greek Republic. From 1999 to 2003 she was the elected President of the International Cerebral Palsy Society (ICPS). She has spoken at numerous international meetings all over the world and many of her articles have been published in scientific journals. She directs the highly acclaimed drama group for disabled and nondisabled performers at the Open Door Centre for Education & Rehabilitation, in Athens. Her first book: Saturday's Child –a journey through an Indian Childhood was published in 2007, followed by Poems in 2013 and 81 Cadogan Square in English and Greek, in 2016.

Title:

- Alexandros Panos
Child Safety Care Unit, 2nd Department of Pediatrics, NKUA School of Medicine.
Pediatrician, NKUA Academic Scholar

CV:

- Alexandros Panos was born in Athens and completed his medical studies at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki in 2009. He was a resident of pediatrics at the 2nd Department of Pediatrics of the National Kapodistrian University of Athens at the "Panagiotis and Aglaia Kyriakos" General Children's Hospital until 2018. Since 2019 he is an Academic Scholar and works as a Pediatrician at the 2nd Department of Pediatrics' Child Safety Care Unit. He is currently a PhD candidate and his dissertation subject is the "Detection of early risk factors for the safety of children." His research interests include: promotion of child health and safety, social pediatrics, child abuse management and prevention.

Title:

- Antonis Theodorakopoulos
Consultant Pediatrician
3rd Department of Pediatrics
National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

- CV:

- I was born in Athens. I graduated from the Medical School of the University of Patras. I completed the pediatric residency in 2003. I am consultant of Pediatrics at the 3rd department of Pediatrics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. I have many publications in international and greek peer-reviewed journals. I have been speaker in several medical conferences and reviewer of submitted abstracts. Also, I am PhD candidate at National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. The objectives of my PhD is about the organization, operation and evaluation of the transition of adolescents with chronic diseases to the adults' care system. I have been educated in abuse and neglect of children with the cooperation of ELIZA and Universities of YALE, IOWA, as well as the 2nd department of Pediatrics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. Furthermore, I have been attended the department of adolescence medicine at the 2nd department of Pediatrics, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, for 6 months. Finally, I am founder and president of the club of people, who are coming from Asia Minor and Konstantinople, in Amaroussion-Ioannis Vatzatzis.

Title:

- Konstantinos E. Papadimitropoulos: Social worker and Psychologist. Coordinator in Child Protection Policy and Psychosocial support of the SOS Children's villages Greece

CV:

- EDUCATION
10/2018 –Today: Medical School, Postgraduate Program "Mental Health & Psychiatric Children and Adolescents" National Kapodistrian University of Athens
2006: Bachelor of Science in Psychology, Panteio University of Athens
1999: Bachelor of Social Work, School of Occupational Health

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

02/2019 – Today: Coordinator in Child Protection Policy and Psychosocial support - Member of Pedagogical Interdisciplinary Team, Children's Villages SOS Greece

2008 –2019: Deputy Chief of Staff and Social worker at SOS Babies Home - SOS Children's Villages Greece

2001 – 2008: Key responsible person in the SOS Youth House – SOS Children's Villages Greece Psychosocial support for adolescents, preparation for their autonomy, follow-up

Title:

- Alexandra Soldatou, Assistant Professor of Pediatrics NKUA, Head of Child Safety Care Unit, 2nd Department of Pediatrics, "P & A Kyriakou" Children's Hospital of Athens

CV:

- Alexandra Soldatou is an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at the NKUA Medical School and Director of the Child Safety Care Unit at the “P. & A. Kyriakou” Children’s Hospital. She received her M.D and Ph.D. from the University of Athens, completed residency in Pediatrics in the USA and subspecialty training at the Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children in London. Alexandra joined the University of Athens in 2004. Since 2015, she has worked closely with the ELIZA team in developing and implementing child abuse and neglect preventive interventions. In 2017, she visited the Yale Child Abuse Program on a U.S. Department of State scholarship.

Title:

- Vana Papaevangelou
Professor of Paediatric Infectious Diseases
Third Department of Paediatrics
National and Kapodistrian University of Athens
School of Medicine
University General Hospital ATTIKON

CV:

- Professor Vana Papaevangelou is a USA trained paediatrician, with an interest in paediatric infectious diseases. She has been a full-time clinical paediatrician in a tertiary teaching hospital since 1996 caring for general paediatric cases and children with infectious diseases. Has been actively involved in the education of medical students and paediatric residents and has been appointed Chairman of the Third department of Pediatrics of her University which is located at ATTIKON hospital (2013). Over the past 20 years, she has been actively involved in multiple research projects. She is member of the National Advisory Board for Immunization Practices, the National Hepatitis Board and the Viral Hepatitis Prevention Board. Prof V Papaevangelou has published >100 papers in peer reviewed journals.

Title:

- Dr. Elektra Koutsoukou, Attorney at Law, Scientific Assistant at the University of Peloponnese

CV:

- Dr. Elektra Koutsoukou, Attorney at Law, studied Law in Greece, Germany and Austria. She teaches at the UOA, as well as at the UOP. She has given lectures at the IOA, at the Hellenic Police Officers University, etc. while she has participated as a trainer in training of judges and prosecutors, physicians, policemen, teachers etc.

She is a legal advisor to ELIZA, while she has worked as a research associate at EKKE, ISPS, GGGE, KESD, etc. She was a member of the Committee of the Ministry of Education and Religious Affairs for the Prevention of school bullying.

She has published the monographs "Legal protection of the child in Greece" (Legal Library, 2013) and "Social protection in modern Greece: Childhood and Family" (Sideris, 2019). She has also participated in the monographs "The criminal phenomenon in Greece today" (Papazisi, 2016) and "Experiences of Cyberspace". (Sideris, 2018).

Title:

- Ioanna Paicos, Biologist, Geneticist

CV:

- Ioanna Paicos was born in Athens and raised in Berlin. She is a graduate of Biology from the Berkeley University of California, and has also received an MA in Genetics from the Ludwig Maximilians Universität in Munich. She worked for 10 years, from 1990 until 2000, in the field of IVF as a clinical embryologist. Ioanna also holds a BA in Psychology from the Deree American College of Greece and had her Psychoanalytic training at the Greek Society of Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy in Athens. For two years she interned at the Psychiatric Clinic of the Airforce General Hospital 215. Volunteering and community work have always been a big part of her interests. She cooperated closely with ELIZA these last years and is currently a member of the Governing Board.

Title:

- Aphrodite Stathi, Psychologist, Executive Director of ELIZA

CV:

- Aphrodite Stathi holds a Master's degree (MSc) from the London School of Economics and Political Sciences on Organizational and Social Psychology, and a BA in Psychology (BA) from the American College of Greece, Deree College (ACG). She has a wide range of experience in Business Development and Strategy having worked for more than 15 years as a senior executive in the fields of Market Research, Consultancy, Strategy and Communication both in Greek and multinational organizations. As the Executive Director of ELIZA since 2014, Aphrodite's decisions and actions stem from identifying areas of need where child abuse and neglect are concerned and making the right choice on priorities thereof. She plans and implements important new collaborations, draws new paths of communication and extends the organization's circle of friends and supporters.